Comfortable and fully renovated apartment in the building from the beginning of the last century in the center of town. The building is well maintained, with arranged facade and entrance hall. It is located in a busy street close to the pedestrian area of Knez Mihailova street. This place is well connected to all parts of the city and is rich in cultural, public and commercial facilities. The apartment is housed on the third floor of the building with no elevator. The apartment has two-side orientation, functional structure, and it is very bright. In the apartment dominates the living room with fireplace, equipped in minimalist manner. There are three bedrooms, a kitchen and two modern designed bathrooms. One bedroom is separated from the living room with large sliding door in the mirror. Interior is modernly decorated, with exposed ceiling beams, without much detail. Suitable for business people who want to be a bit close to city events.
