Excellent apartment in a pre-war villa located in the exclusive part of Dedinje. Quiet area isolated from the noise of the city. There are several international schools in the immediate vicinity, as well as numerous family houses. The location is characterized by a good connection to the city center or the highway. The apartment has a yard of 5 acres, which is rich in greenery and provides maximum privacy. It occupies two levels, ie the ground floor and the first floor. Ground floor has open space layout, featuring a spacious living room and dining area which are connected, with a large modern kitchen. There is also one bathroom on this level. Marble stairs lead to the first floor which features four rooms, one of which has access to a spacious terrace overlooking Kosutnjak. On this floor, too, there is a very interesting, modern bathroom with a bathtub. Property is suitable for both housing and business premises for various types of activities.
