Beautiful apartment in a pre-war villa in an exclusive part of Dedinje. A quiet area isolated from the noise of the city. In the immediate vicinity there are several international schools, as well as numerous family houses. The location is characterized by good connection to the city center and the highway. The apartment has a small paved yard at its disposal, which provides maximum privacy. One covered parking space is provided by the entrance and there is a storage room of about 6m² underneath. The apartment is on the second, top floor of the villa and consists of one living room, kitchen with dining area, two bedrooms, both of which have access to a bathroom with shower, one toilet. There is no terrace, not furnished except for kitchen elements and appliances. It is suitable for both housing and business space for various types of activities.
