Housed in one of the beautiful and representative buildings in the very heart of Belgrade, this charming, completely renovated pre war apartment has preserved the spirit of the old city architecture, keeping the comfort of modern life. The apartment is functionally organized and has two bedrooms, which makes it ideal for a family, but also for those who want a comfortable city life with enough space for guests or a home office. The interior is decorated with great taste and attention to detail - an elegant combination of the authentic character of the pre war era and contemporary design. It is fully furnished and ready to move in. Excellent location in the center, beautiful building, representative interior and very good organization make this property particularly attractive for those looking for an apartment with character.
